City of Wooster Utilities Department Source Water Protection Program (SWPP)

What is a 'Source Water Protection Program' ?

The City of Wooster Source Water Protection Plan (SWPP) which is a written, adaptive plan of action for protecting the water we drink at the source. A SWPP Task Force has been formed with the focus on our community and deep desire to protect our Drinking Source Water.

A Drinking Water Source Water Protection Program includes two phases: assessment and protection. Assessment includes research, data, and science to evaluate the potential for source contamination based on the facilities and activities with in areas of interest. Protection includes activities to ensure the integrity of the source water that eventually becomes the source of drinking water for the community.

Through collaboration with the Ohio EPA and research consultants, the City of Wooster engaged in a comprehensive update of this program. This included evaluation of protection methods, protection areas, and efforts to ensure the program operates with the focus of drinking water protection.

The updated plan can be located on a webpage at

The City of Wooster has placed a priority on protecting its ground water resources through public education and intentional controls. If you would like to participate in plan updates and serve on the SWPP Task Force, please contact:
